

CDA Message

The CDA is a unifying force that shapes the future of our profession. Our association adapts to new constraints and realities in practice and offers support to both patients and dermatologists across Canada. I want to put my leadership, initiative, and ability to innovate to work in service of this mission in order to advance and promote our profession.